

VIBE VOCABULARY: FEELINGS → INSTRUCTIONS

Say the feeling. This is what the AI does with it.

YOU SAY	CUTS & PACE	MOTION	TYPE	COLOUR & LOOK	SOUND
punchy	hard cuts on beats, 1–2 s shots	slams, 0.2–0.4 s moves, shakes	heavy condensed (Anton)	high contrast	impacts, hype bed premium	longer shots, calm	slow ease-in-out, lots of space	serif + thin sans	muted, soft grade	cinematic/corporate, quiet playful	bouncy, quick	overshoot, squash & stretch	rounded, hand fonts	bright, saturated	glockenspiel, pops, boings cinematic	slow, deliberate	push-ins, drifts	serif titles	letterbox, teal-orange, grain	drones, risers, hits dreamy	dissolves	slow floats, blur	light serif/italic	pastel, glow, soft focus	chill bed, reverb techy	snappy	glitches, grids, scans	mono	dark + neon accent	tech bed, clicks, glitches clean	medium	simple ease-out	one sans family	white space, brand colours	light corporate raw / authentic	natural pauses kept	handheld feel	simple captions	natural, light grade	room tone, soft bed luxury	very slow	elegant reveals	wide-tracked serif caps	black/gold/cream	strings-like pads energetic	fast montage	whip pans, zooms	big bold caps	bold primaries	hype, risers, drops cozy	gentle	soft bounces	rounded	warm grade	chill/lo-fi handmade	on twos (12 fps)	boil, wobble	hand-lettered	paper/clay texture	foley, ukulele-like plucks

■ COMBINING

- Use 2–3 words max: "premium, calm, warm".
- Avoid contradictions: "calm but frantic".
- Add a reference for precision: "punchy like a Nike ad, clean like Apple."

DIRECT THE VIBE. LET AI DO THE KEYFRAMES.

VIBE VOCABULARY: FEELINGS → INSTRUCTIONS